Canada's Strength!

TWO YEARS or so of stringent times have washed out of the fabric of Canadian business some things that were marring the fair sheet of our prosperity—speculation in real estate, excessive personal extravagance, venturesomeness in finance and a tendency to imprudent business expansion. To-day Canada's strength is showing it unmistakably. We have recovered our self-confidence and courage.

Our business men who advertise owe it to themselves and the times to continue their advertising. Advertisements are declaratory of purpose, courage and service. An absence of advertising is an indication of nervousness, and of energy in a state of collapse or suspense.

Strength shows itself in Action---Advertising.

L. B. Losey and Son Carry away Twenty-five
First Prizes at Medicine Hat Exhibition.

TWENTY-FIVE First, Six Second and one Third Prize was the record made by Losey and Son at the Medicine Hat Fair last week. These prizes were awarded for grains, vegetables and barred, buff and white rock poultry and the competitors were drawn from all sections of the district.

One prize which was of special interest was given for the best collection of vegetables. Losey and Son gained the first prize, which was $30.00. This was a dry-farming exhibit, but, in fact, the collection of Losey and Son was better, especially in varieties, than that shown by the Southern Alberta Land Company in the irrigated class.

Many and deserved were the compliments of the spectators, many of whom doubted the fact that it was grown in such a dry year as this, and without irrigation, while others contended that the collection would make a splendid exhibit for even a favorable year.

Many people who are discouraged and are desiding this country and are ready to give up, would be encouraged to try again, could they have seen what this soil can produce under unfavorable circumstances when it is intelligently and scientifically tilled.

"For all we have and Are."

London, Sept. 1.—Rudyard Kipling contributes the following poem to the London Times:

(By RUDYARD KIPLING)

For all we have and are,

For all our children's fate,

Stand up and meet the war,

The Hun is at the gate.

Our world has passed away,

In wanton overthrow;

There's nothing left to-day

But steel and fire and woe.

Though all we know depart—

In courage keep your heart

No law except the sword,

Uncheated and unsmouldered.

Once more it kuits mankind!

Once more the nations go

To meet and break and bind

A crazed and driven foe.

Comfort, content, delight,

The ages slow-longed gain

They shrivelled in a night—

Only ourselves remain.

To face the naked days,

In silent fortitude,

Through perils and dismay

Reverent and still renewed.

Though we may all depart,

The old commandments stand:

In patience keep your heart,

No easy hopes or lies

Shall bring us to our goal:

But iron sacrifices

Of body, will and soul.

There's but one task for all,

For each, one life to give:

Who stands if Freedom fall?

Who dies if England lives?

Rural Municipality of Bow Island, No. 94.

The regular meeting of the Rural Municipality of Bow Island was held on Monday in the Council Chamber. Present—Reeve J. W. Campbell, Councillors Gragg, Bruce, Beggs and Sawson.

Numerous communications were dealt with at this meeting, many of them, however, of no public interest. R. Davidson, pound-keeper No. 8, reported that a horse which had been impounded, after being advertised, had been sold for $16.00, and the fees in connection therewith amounted to $16.40.

A list of appeals against the assessment was read. This list included the C.P.R. and the Canadian Western Natural Gas Co., both of which concerns claimed they had been assessed too high.

Most of the appeals were rejected.

The following accounts were submitted—

A. F. Werts, salary etc..... $8.50

Brilliant Victory By The British Fleet.

Eleven German Vessels Sank in Naval Battle in North Sea.

ONCE AGAIN the Royal Navy of Great Britain has added to its laurels and upheld the traditions of daring and dash which has come down through the centuries.

Out of the North sea on Saturday, came a message describing a brilliant victory gained by the British fleet over the Germans near Heligoland, which has shrouded our ships and sending a thrill of gladness throughout the Empire.

The first dispatch stated Vice-Admiral Beatty led his fleet through the darkness under the guns of Germany's stronghold in the north sea, and engaged the enemy, sinking three German cruisers, and two destroyers, without the loss of a ship, and withdrew through the mine strewn sea.

Crews of destroyers which have arrived in port say that at least eleven German vessels of various sizes were sunk in the engagements off Heligoland. Toward the end of the battle some English pinnares engaged in picking up Germans struggling in the water were followed by the German squadron and had to beat a hasty retreat, leaving the men to their fate.

A Central News despatch from Amsterdam says the German official version of the North sea sea-fights credits the British crews' version in every particular. The victory has aroused great enthusiasm in Antwerp, where they have been met by the sight of its former dread of a sea attack by the German fleet.

British cruisers and destroyers, some of them showing signs of the battle in which they had been engaged off Heligoland, have arrived at Harwich, Chatham and Sheerness. They had British and German wounded aboard.

The Germans were picked up at sea after their ships had gone to the bottom.

No one was allowed to board the damaged vessels but from the shore it could be seen that some of them bore shell holes. One destroyer had no less than 14 such holes which had been plugged with cloth.

The British light cruiser Fearless took a prominent part in the battle. She approached within ten miles of the German coast and drew out the German cruisers which attempted to surround her. At one moment she was engaged single handed against four of them. One had come within 70 yards when she was struck and burst into flames.

After they had found the range, the German marksmanship was good. The Fearless had her wireless shot away and was hit 10 times. Afterward the Fearless stood by the disabled German, although she, herself, was in danger of being sunk.

The arrival of the other British cruiser speedily decided the engagement. The British casualties so far amounted to two officers and 130 sailors, seven more killed, 19 men seriously injured and 19 others, slightly wounded.

THE ALASKA INDUSTRY RESULTS IN GREAT PROFITS USE OF MODERN METHODS RE- SULTS IN GREAT PROFITS THAN FORMERLY

Immense Sums are Invested in the Industry by Canadian and American Firms—U. S. Congress to be Asked to Safeguard Industry—The Alaska Petroleum Industry is now being developed in Washington—Centrally to the accepted belief in this country whaling is still a great industry and is growing rapidly in the Pacific ocean adjacent to the coast of the United States. This is the assertion of W. E. Davidson, president of the American Whaling Company, who is one of the two whaling companies operating in Alaska and who is trying to secure legislation by Congress for the conservation of the supply of whales as well as the business of those engaged in the business.

Recently a favorable report was made in the Senate by the committee on whaling, introduced by Senator Knute Nelson, providing that no whaling station should be established in Alaska at a distance of more than 75 miles from another. The measure was introduced in the House by Mr. Devinney, who is the member from Alaska, and the committee on fisheries, showed that large amounts are invested in whaling in Alaska and stations on the Pacific coast.

Up to a few years ago practically all whaling was carried on in the waters, but in recent years there has been a great increase in the industry in the waters of the Pacific and Mr. Devinney has shown that whaling is a profitable business.

This is a prospect reasonably sure to the contractors chief together in the British Columbia whaling state. When conversation can float in the Pacific, the whaling industry really live up to natural abundance and the whaling industry will be discouraged war. Killing people are on your life is not alluring. The whaling industry is a profitable business, it is also profitable. The whaling industry is a profitable business, it is also profitable.

It has been demonstrated that whaling is a profitable business, it is also profitable. The whaling industry is a profitable business, it is also profitable. The whaling industry is a profitable business, it is also profitable.

On account of the invasion of the whaling ship, whaling now is carried on like any other business, the whaling industry is a profitable business, it is also profitable. The whaling industry is a profitable business, it is also profitable.

Local & General.

Geo. Lomas has received a bunch of game licenses.

Mrs. G. R. Howden was a visitor in town on Tuesday.

Birth—On Monday, August 31st, to Mr. and Mrs. Whitfield, a son.

Mrs. R. Rogers left on Monday in company with her father for Okotoks.

J. W. Reid returned this week from a visit to his brother at Wainwright.

An extra gang of the C.P.R. is engaged this week on the water pipe line.

B. S. Beattie has purchased a car in order to facilitate the handling of his increased business.

Services at All Saints' on Sunday next: 11 a.m., Matins, Holy Communion and Sermon; 7.30 p.m., Evensong and Sermon.

A. Lee left on Thursday for Vulcan, where he will take charge of the Taylor Milling Elevator.

E. W. Luckhurst, and F. J. Henderson left town on Sunday for an extended business trip in the Cay District.

In consequence of the re-opening of Archie Hoaglin's classy pool room on Broadway, the townpeople will not miss the Band quite so much.

School opened on Tuesday, with the usual cheers from the children. The new staff comprises H. Fitchett, head teacher, Miss Cousins, and Miss McLaren.

Nelson Spencer, M.P.P., who has been in Ottawa in connection with securing relief for the farmers, returned on Saturday last to Medicine Hat.

The town secretary's office closely resembles a recruiting office in the Old Country these days. Ten per cent. off the taxes is, of course, the attraction.

A special meeting of the Bow Island lodge, I.O.O.F., will be held on Monday next at 8 p.m. Every member should make an effort to be there.

We are informed that Dominion government agents are now going through the south country relieving those farmers who are in need of assistance.

The citizens are making full use of the small library housed in the town by the Provincial government. The books are kept by the secretary of the Board of Trade, R. S. Beattie.

Apparently it wanted an European war to show some people that the old lion was still as husky as ever. Incidentally, the war shows that the lion's whelps are growing stronger.

One of our farmers finds consolation for the loss of his crop from the fact that a bountiful harvest would have prevented him keeping in touch with the war situation.

Duck shooting opened Tuesday with the usual display of pyrotechnics. Local Nimrods however, found the birds nearly as shy as the German fleet at Wilhelmshaven, and just as hard to get at.

The postmaster general has issued instructions to the different postmasters and inspectors throughout the country for the resumption of money order business between Canada and Great Britain on a modified basis.

The year 1914 has certainly been one to breed pessimism, and but little fault can be found with those who have become discouraged. However, there are some worse places than Southern Alberta just now, as our Belgian friends can testify.

A dispatch from Europe states that the Germans, not content with destroying the crops of the Belgians, have compelled the inhabitants of that plucky little country to enter Germany and harvest the crops for their conquerors. This is "rubbing it in" badly.

Other Views.

New York Telegraph: "Suppose," said a writer, "that a foreign country were to send troops into Canada, would you not the United States, under the Monroe Doctrine, have to fight on behalf of Canada?"

Don't worry yourself, Mr. Trouble Finder. Foreign troops are not going to invade Canada, and would not attempt it even if they wished to do so.

Canada is too far away, and the difficulties are too many for any nation to try and invade the Dominion. One of the things in the way of invasion is the British navy. Another obstacle in the way of invaders would be about a million fighting men in Canada. The Monroe Doctrine, however, only is intended to prevent foreign troops from forming new colonies in this section of the world, but we would not interfere to prevent a war. As to any foreign country annexing Canada by conquest, it is quite safe to say the Canadians can take care of themselves.

Major A. E. Kirkpatrick, manager for Canada of the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company of Baltimore, has received this telegram from the president of that corporation, Mr. John R. Hand: "The business of the United States and with their brethren in Canada and with the British Empire. God grant that the Canadians in our service will be spared to their families and that the great British Empire will endure for all time." The telegram adds that such action is absolutely necessary in the interests of the company will receive their salaries so long as they are serving with the colours.

This from an American corporation means much as indicating the state of feeling across the line with regard to the war.

Why Japan is at War with the Germans.

Ottawa, August 31.—The following statement, inspired from Tokyo, was given to the press this afternoon by the Japanese consul-general for Canada, Mr. Yada. The statement says in part:

"Japan and Germany are about to engage in war in the China sea because such action is absolutely necessary in the interests of lasting peace in the Far East. Under the provisions of the Anglo-Japanese alliance, Japan is in honor bound to take measures in co-operation with her ally. That Japan has no other motives than these set forth is shown by the declaration in the ultimatum to Germany that Kiaochow will be restored to China. The long proclaimed policy of Japan is to supervise the integrity of China, and to maintain the open door, and the declared intention to restore Kiaochow is another proof."

"The provisions of the treaty of alliance with Great Britain enunciate specifically the principles of the integrity of China and the open door."

"Japan has not and never has had hostility or even objection to the policies of the United States and Great Britain in the Far East. On the other hand, they have strongly appealed to her sense of right and justice. Great Britain is satisfied with her territorial status quo. The United States has no desire for the Eastern aggression."

Both the United States and Great Britain seek one thing only, markets where their products can be sold in competition with those of other nations.

Farmers Busy at Endon.

The laying of steel began last week from Vermont. This is good news for the farmers and it is hoped to see the metal here before many weeks. Grading has been almost completed to Fourways.

Roy Light, an engineer, who has been engaged on C.P.R. construction here, has been called on to go to the help to join the Canadian army. He left Friday afternoon.

Conditions at the Foremost Farmers Elevator are well nigh intolerable. Without oats for nearly a month there is now some in stock, but the elevator is practically without flour or ground feed. Farmers who are in need of flour drive from twenty to forty miles without getting a load and are lucky if they secure a bag of flour. Conditions should be improved, as the poor management, in addition to being a great inconvenience to the settlers, is bringing the farmers' organization into contempt.

A reporter recently drove through the south-western part of this municipality, covering townships 63, 64, 5-4, 4-4, 4-5, and 6-5. Very few crops of any account were seen last there was evidence of careful preparation for 1915. The recent rains have made conditions ideal for stubble ploughing and the farmers are now hard at work ploughing and conserving the moisture on summer fallow.

Harry Peck threshed his grain on Monday. He is the only farmer at Fourways who has done any threshing. He follows a regular system of summer fallow and while his crop suffered in common with others from the drought, a splendid show was made. Harry Peck also had a good field of wheat.

Considerable road work will be done here by the provincial government to improve the trails and give farmers who have lost their crops a chance to get employment.

The Endon, Etzikom, Doodlake and Faith farmers and those living south of the municipality are rejoicing as there is to be built a road straight across the municipality running north and south through the town. The work begins Wednesday on the south line. Farmers along the work will be given employment to the extent of $15. This will prove a great boon to the settlers here and is much appreciated.

Mr. Almsmith, of Lethbridge, inspector of public works, has the above work under his charge. A large number of scrapers and plows have arrived for the municipality and are being used by the going doing work for the government. The municipality has also bought a large road grader and a heavy plow. No work is being done by the municipality this year owing to the crop failure.

WHAT IS MEANT BY "ARMAGEDDON."

The word "Armageddon" has been freely used of late to describe the awful position in which Europe stands today, but probably many of those who hear or speak it fail to remember its origin. In a sense the nomenclature is not inapt, for it certainly suggests the gathering of the nations for a war whose issue would be world-wide desolation. In the Apocalypse, however, the inference is that the fight is to the death between the forces of good and evil; and he would be an outrageous patriot who really imagined in these days that the forces of good, whose issue and effects no one can reckon up with anything like certainty, the right is all on one side. That idea, nevertheless, has served man in all ages of the world's history to exhort to heroism as well as savagery and to the death in unity torn in moulding the destinies of nations.

Westminster Gazette.

"Germany on the other hand, has a dual determination, extension of her trade and the acquisition of exclusive markets. In other words, Kaiser Wilhelm has sought solutions, albeit with a will would be built, leaving a preferential door open to German trade."

"By her acquisition of Kiaochow, Germany became a menace to the peace of the Far East. Moreover, the diplomatic history of the Far East shows conclusively that the Germans' course runs directly counter to the principle of the integrity of China and the open door, and it plainly points to the ultimate result in the maelstrom of world politics."
